

"Like, Totally"

So, like, anyways, I was watching TRL yesterday. Total Request Live. So cool. You know it, right? Channel 53 at 3:30. I was, like, glued to the screen. Carson is so totally hot. Alyssa said he wasn't. I was like "Yes, he totally is." and she was like "No, he totally isn't". She claimed that he only rated seven out of ten on the babe meter. He is so a nine point seven five at least. I hung up on her. She wouldn't know hot if N SYNC knocked on her door.

Oh my God, N SYNC. Do you even realize that they totally are going to, like, take over the music industry?! Don't even try to disagree with me. J.C. is soo hot, and Justin is, like, all right. I don't, like, know about his new hair though. Too big and sorta screaming "Look at me, I'm not trendy anymore". Totally not the best look for him. So not Abercrombie and Fitch or even, like, American Eagle. Whatever, forget him.

All right, be honest with me. Do you like the new shirt? I totally am going for that Britney / Christina look: innocent yet seductive. Thank god I've been going to my kick boxing classes. I am so totally getting into shape and am gonna totally have kickin' abs just like Britney. It's not like she's my idol though, so don't look at me like I am trying to be her. She totally would rather be me. Did you hear about Britney and Justin? Are you, like, fretting yet? How can they be together? I totally thought that he was going to marry you. Don't worry he'll wise up and dump that slut.

Oh my god, speaking of sluts, did I tell you what Jena's dad did to her? No, I'm just kidding she's not a slut, but her dad took away her cell phone. How is she going to deal? I'd, like, hang myself with a bracelet if that happened to me. Can you believe that he said that she, like, totally spends too much time on it? Her bill was only $345.00. Mine is always half a grand a month at least.

Well at least our dad is totally cool. Can you believe that he's going to get us backstage passes to see our boys? N SYNC!! I totally can't wait. I'm counting the days, the hours, the minutes. I'm, like, counting the seconds! Aren't you totally, like, losing sleep about the concert and what we should wear and now we should do our hair and all? I totally cannot wait!

What'd you say? I thought you were bringing me? All your friends think I am, like, totally cool. Most people have no idea that I'm your mother.
